Dear Mr. Locke:

You or your organization has been identified as having solicited or as currently soliciting funds for public or charitable purposes related to the Sandy Hook Elementary School tragedy. Consistent with our duty to oversee fundraising activity in Connecticut, by letter dated March 28, 2013, we asked you to provide information about your organization's fundraising and charitable efforts in support of the tragedy at Sandy Hook Elementary School by completing a brief survey. You have not responded to this survey.

In our ongoing effort to promote transparency and encourage further giving, we again ask you to provide responses to the survey questions. Your voluntary compliance with this request at your earliest convenience will give reassurance to us and to the public that your fundraising activity is compliant with Connecticut law and that all donations are used only for the purposes represented to the public. A copy of the survey is attached, or if you prefer an electronic copy it may be downloaded at http://www.ct.gov/ag/lib/ag/charities/sandyhookfundraising-web.doc.

You should be aware that the Connecticut Solicitation of Charitable Funds Act, Conn. Gen. Stat. § 21a-175 et seq., requires persons or charitable organizations that solicit funds for a public or charitable purpose register with the Connecticut Department of Consumer Protection or file a request for exemption from registration. An organization that solicits funds for charitable purposes without being registered or obtaining an exemption from the registration requirement is subject to penalties under Connecticut law. If you are not registered or have not filed a request for exemption from registration, you must do so immediately. You can obtain the registration material by calling us at (860) 808-5020 or you may email us at Cheryl.Turner@ct.gov.

We encourage your voluntary compliance with our request that you provide responses to the enclosed survey and all state registration requirements. As indicated, an electronic copy of the survey for fundraising related to the Sandy Hook tragedy is available at http://www.ct.gov/ag/lib/ag/charities/sandyhookfundraising-web.doc or may be obtained by sending an email to Caitlin.Calder@ct.gov.

Please email your survey responses to Caitlin.Calder@ct.gov. For more information on registration or if you have any questions, please call (860) 808-5020. Please complete the survey and registration by May 17, 2013.
