Specifically, it does not authorize them to register bingo games (CGS § 7-169a). Current law, which the bill does not change, requires organizations wishing to operate bingo to register with the DSR executive director before a permit is issued. The bill does not transfer this requirement to DCP. Additionally, under the bill, charitable games (i.e., sealed tickets and bazaars and raffles) would not be operable because the bill does not authorize DCP or the Gaming Policy Board to implement and administer a permitting process.) REF.
