[1] Coastal towns identified in the Connecticut Coastal Management Act and listed in Sec. 22a-94 of the Connecticut General Statutes are marked by (c) in this table. Some non-coastal towns have prepared harbor management plans and are served by governor-appointed harbor masters.

[2] The Harbor Master is appointed for Southport Harbor in the Town of Fairfield.

[3] The Borough of Fenwick is a political subdivision within the Town of Old Saybrook with its own Harbor Management Commission and Harbor Management Plan.

[4] The Harbor Master is appointed for Lyme/Hamburg Cove.

[5] The Town of Groton Harbor Management Plan and Harbor Master cover the Noank section of Town.

[6] Groton Long Point is a political subdivision within the Town of Groton.

[7] Mystic is a village within the towns of Groton (west of the Mystic River) and Stonington (east of the Mystic River). The Mystic Harbor Management Plan covers the Mystic River in Stonington. The Mystic Harbor Management Commission is a Town of Stonington commission.

[8] The inhabited Mason's Island and smaller Ram Island are in the Town of Stonington.

[9] Lords Point is a private beach community in the Town of Stonington.

[10] The Pawcatuck River is an area in the Town of Stonington; the Pawcatuck River Harbor Management Commission is a Town of Stonington commission.
