CONNECTICUT STATE POLICE ARREST WISCONSIN FUGITIVE

Today 02/09/05 Connecticut State Police Fugitive Task Force Detectives took a subject into custody who was wanted by the State of Wisconsin for 19 felony charges.

On 02/04/05 a Detective from the Wauwatosa Wisconsin Police Department contacted the Connecticut State Police and requested assistance in a Wisconsin criminal investigation. Wisconsin authorities held a 19-count felony warrant for a subject who was believed to be in the State of Connecticut. The accused is a former medical doctor from Wisconsin who had his medical license revoked in that state and had fled the state in November of 2004 to avoid prosecution.

Connecticut State Police Fugitive Task Force Detectives initiated a criminal investigation. Utilizing the facts and information provided by Wisconsin authorities Connecticut State Police Detectives developed a possible address of 202 Mamanasco Rd. Ridgefield Connecticut where the accused was residing. Task Force Detectives applied to Superior Court for a search and seizure warrant for the accused. The warrant was issued on 02/08/05.

Today 02/09/05 at 10:30 a.m. State Police Detectives assisted by Ridgefield Police served the search warrant and located the accused at the Ridgefield Ct address. The accused was taken into custody without incident. He was transported to State Police Troop-A Southbury where he is being held on a $2,000,000 bond as a fugitive from justice for the State of Wisconsin. The accused will appear in GA #3 in Danbury on 02/10/05
