AUTHORITY	§§ 4b-1, 4b-24(4), 4b-58	§§ 13a-23, 13a-33, 13a-198d, 13b-15a, 13b-26, 13b-29	§ 10a-109d	§§ 32-655, 32-656	§ 2-71b, 2-71h, 2-71q, 4b-61
DESIGN PROFESSIONAL	§ 4b-56: State Construction Services Selection Panel reviews responses to ad and recommends top three to Commissioner, who selects best firm for the project. § 4b-58: If design professional is needed for a special legislation project, Commissioner is to select and interview 3 firms and select the most qualified. § 4b-24(4), as amended by P.A. 03-215 & P.A. 04-141 (effective 10/1/04): Two panels are used, one to screen proposals, and one to interview short-list of firms given to them by first panel. Interview panel then gives a list of top three firms to the Commissioner for his selection.	§ 13b-20c et seq.: consultant services evaluation and selection panels evaluate interested consultants for the development of a list of prospective consultants and screens all responses submitted for a project. Selection panel selects 5 firms for further interviews and then provides Commissioner with a list of the most qualified firms for his selection.	§ 10a-109n: University may contract with design professionals for the design of any project.	§ 32-656: design services can be obtained in same manner as personal services agreements under §§ 4-12 to 4-219.	§ 4b-61: If work is for the State Capitol, the State Commission on Capitol Preservation & Restoration selects top three design professionals responding to ad, and Leg. Mgmt Committee negotiates contract with firm it considers to be most qualified. § 2-71q: For other work, Committee invites responses by ad, reviews the responses and selects 5 that it believes are most qualified. The Committee then may negotiate a contract with the design professional it considers to be most qualified.
