

Vet Express

Description:

The Connecticut Department of Veterans' Affairs provides a mobile service program called Vet Express to make services more accessible to veterans. The Vet Express van visits convenient locations such as town halls, libraries, state facilities, shopping centers and special events to provide direct services to Connecticut's veterans. Department of Veterans' Affairs service officers are available on the van to provide general information and assistance and to initiate claims for veterans' benefits. The van is handicapped accessible. Appointments are not needed to visit the van at any of its locations. Organizations can schedule the Vet Express for special events.
