

Senior Job Banks

Description:

Senior Job Banks assist older individuals in finding employment. Staff members work with older adults who want to re-enter the job market as well as those who have never worked but wish to seek employment for the first time. Senior Job Banks maintain information on employers that are seeking older workers and on older workers who are looking for employment so that they can match older persons to appropriate job openings.

Jobs registered with the Senior Job Banks vary; they may be full- or part-time positions.
