

Did you know that the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 took effect on January 1, 2009?

Do you know that this new Act is likely to bring some very significant change for people with disabilities, especially those with hidden disabilities?

Would you like to learn about the key elements, new definitions and potential implications of the ADA Amendments Act?

If your answers are “Yes”, please come to this important presentation given by the ADA Coalition of Connecticut!

Presenter: Stan Kosloski, former ADA Coordinator, State of CT

When: Tuesday, February 17, 2009
10:00 am – 12:00 pm
(Registration & refreshments at 9:30 am)

Where: Newington Senior and Disabled Center
131 Cedar Street (also Rte 175) - Newington, CT 06111

Fee: $20.00 (requests for subsidies accepted – call Lisa at 860-297-4383)

Please register by February 9, using attached registration form
If you require an interpreter, or another accommodation, let us know.

For directions to Newington Senior and Disabled Center go to:

www.newingtonct.gov/content/104/864/3320.aspx