A Special Pardons Board Meeting has been scheduled as detailed above. Inmate Bonnie Foreshaw is currently incarcerated at the York Correctional Institution. Foreshaw was convicted of murder and sentenced to forty-five years on November 2, 1987.

Please note that the photographer or broadcaster and its personnel, or the person recording the proceedings, shall be required to handle the photographing, broadcast or recording as inconspicuously as possible and in such manner as not to disturb the proceedings of the public agency per Connecticut General Statute 1-226. In addition, all individuals shall be required to successfully pass through the metal detector or other detection system to gain access to the correctional facility. It is recommended that you arrive at least forty-five minutes before the hearing.
