

Our job is to help you prepare for, find and keep your job.

We're Connecticut's Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) program, part of the Bureau of Rehabilitation Services (BRS), a division of the Department of Rehabilitation Services (DORS).

We help individuals with physical and/or mental impairment(s), which affects their ability to enter or maintain employment.

If you are legally blind, you can obtain VR services from the Bureau of Education and Services for the Blind (BESB). Visit www.ct.gov/besb or call 860-602-4000.

THE CONNECTICUT VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION PROGRAM

Navigating the job market is easier when you know how.

Where do you start?

Contact the Bureau of Rehabilitation Services (BRS) office nearest to your home to apply for services. If you are younger than 18 years old, your parent or guardian will have to be involved in the process.

You will be asked to provide information about your disability, your education and any work or volunteer opportunities you may have had. When necessary, you may be asked to participate in medical, psychiatric, psychological or other evaluations that will be paid for by BRS.

Talk to a professional.

A Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) counselor will explain how our process works and answer any questions you may have. Once you make the decision to apply for services the counselor has up to 60 days to determine if you are eligible.

Our expertise, your plan.

If you are eligible for VR services, you will work with a BRS counselor to develop an Individualized Plan for Employment (IPE). Your IPE will identify your vocational goal, what steps are needed to help you achieve your goal and who is responsible for each step. Both you and your counselor will reach an agreement on your IPE services and take actions toward completing each service of the IPE.

BRS @ work.

BRS provides individualized services to help you find employment that best matches your interests, values, personality and abilities. Services are provided based on the current job market and availability of funds. All services must be pre-authorized by your BRS counselor.

BRS may provide a full range of services, in any combination, that best fit your needs, including:

- Vocational counseling
- Benefits counseling
- Job search assistance
- School-to-work transition services
- Skills training and career education in college and/or vocational schools
- On-the-job training in business and industry
- Assistive technology services such as adaptive equipment for mobility, communication and work activities
- Vehicle and home modification
- Supported employment services
- Services to assist in restoring or improving a physical and/or mental impairment
- Help accessing other programs and services

Your counselor will explain when BRS will pay for part or all of a service. We will also help you find other resources including financial aid, medical insurance and your own finances.

Important factors that impact eligibility.

- If you receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI), you may be presumed eligible for VR services. Our benefits specialists are here to help you understand how work can affect your benefits.
- Individuals with the most significant disabilities may receive services on a priority basis called the Order of Selection.
- If your disability is not found to be “significant,” you may not be eligible for services. If this occurs, you may be added to a waiting list and be given other potential options for assistance.
