

Connecticut Commission on Culture & Tourism

Please join the Connecticut Commission on Culture & Tourism for a special presentation of the first state study of the economic impact of culture and tourism in Connecticut. The research and study will provide arts groups, lodgings, attractions, historic properties, filmmakers and others with the data you need to be effective advocates for your industry. The presentation will be attended by members of the culture and tourism industry, legislators and members of the press.

Stan McMillen, Ph.D., Associate Director of the Connecticut Center for Economic Analysis and author of the study will present it on December 7, 2006, at 11:00 a.m. in Room 1C of the Legislative Office Building.

We encourage you to attend and to bring staff, board members, volunteers or others who may benefit from understanding the impact of culture and tourism spending, jobs and activity on Connecticut's economy.
