Important Notice to Connecticut Cultural Organizations and Tourism Venues:

Connecticut Open House Day 2015

Sponsored by the Connecticut Office of Tourism

- What: Connecticut Open House Day
Participate in a one-day statewide celebration of Connecticut's fascinating world of art, history, and tourism. Open your doors to Connecticut's residents to showcase your organization's unique cultural and/or tourism attraction.
- When: Saturday, June 13, 2015
- Where: Art galleries, museums, theaters, historic properties, tourism attractions and other key sites throughout Connecticut.
- Why Participate:
- To reacquaint citizens with the many cultural organizations and tourism attractions throughout the state; to encourage visitation to these venues; and to build pride and awareness among our citizens in all the unique treasures Connecticut has to offer, in efforts to show off Connecticut to the 30-40% of its out-of-state visitors who come to connect with friends and family.
 - To engage your organization's board members, donors, volunteers, friends and staff in this exciting one-day event designed to increase exposure for your business.
 - To celebrate Connecticut's cultural, historical and tourism assets.
 - To entice Connecticut residents to sample your venue, with the hope they may become repeat visitors and supporters.
 - To be part of a statewide effort that will generate publicity and potential property exposure.
 - To capitalize on a unique opportunity to offer visitors interesting programming, such as a thematic tour, a special performance or lecture.
