

Seminar Series presentations are considered a supplement to firefighter and Fire Officer classes offered by the Connecticut Fire Academy. Classes provided by the Connecticut Fire Academy comply with NFPA standards and best practices of the fire service. Seminar Series are also based on these standards and practices but can and often do include opinions of the subject matter experts that are delivering the presentation. Attending any number of the Seminar Series will allow the student to, not only add to their existing training; but also encourage the student to choose from the opinions of different speakers to develop their own style of strategies and tactics at emergency scenes, as well as inspire them to acquire more knowledge on fire service subjects.

Application of the National Incident Management System (NIMS) for Structural Firefighting Operations

Application of the National Incident Management System (NIMS) for Structural Firefighting Operations

This full day seminar covers the knowledge, skills, and abilities, needed for students to manage resources at a structural fire using the National Incident Management System. This course, using scenario based learning will give the student a game plan for resource management during a structural firefighting situation. Through lecture and many group scenario assessments, the student will develop organization charts using NIMS. Topics of discussion include the Initial Size-Up Report, and proper application of NIMS for structural firefighting and scenarios.

This seminar is appropriate for students of all ranks that will be the first due incident commander and/or company officer at any incident. Course is also for all individuals who may be placed in Command & General Staff Positions.
