

HOUSING DISCRIMINATION IS ILLEGAL

Connecticut law prohibits discrimination in the rental and sale of public and private housing, in housing related terms, conditions, services, loans, mortgages, and in verbal or written statements or advertisements.

If you believe you have experienced illegal discrimination, the CT Commission on Human Rights will investigate without cost to you. It is illegal for anyone to retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

The mission of the Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities is to eliminate discrimination through civil and human rights law enforcement and to establish equal opportunity and justice for all persons within the state through advocacy and education.

On the basis of

- Race or Color
- National origin
- Ancestry
- Creed (Religion)
- Sex
- Marital Status
- Age (non-minors)
- Familial status (families with children under the age of 18 living with parents or legal custodians and pregnant women)
- Disability (physical, mental, learning or intellectual)
- Lawful source of income (e.g. Housing assistance such as section 8 or security deposit assistance, income derived from social security, SSI, child support, alimony, public, or general assistance)
- Sexual orientation
- Gender identity or expression
- Veteran status

Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities
Housing Discrimination Unit

450 Columbus Blvd, Suite 2
Hartford, CT 06103
(860) 541-3403 Phone
(860) 541-4701 Fax
www.state.ct.us/chro