

STATE OF CONNECTICUT
COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND OPPORTUNITIES.
OFFICE OF PUBLIC HEARINGS

NOTICE
TO ALL PARTIES IN CASES PENDING AT THE
OFFICE OF PUBLIC HEARINGS

The terms of the current Human Rights Referees that adjudicate cases are terminating as of June 30, 2011. Human Rights Referees for the term beginning July 1, 2011 have not yet been appointed.

In my capacity as Chief Human Rights Referee and for purposes of issuing the following order, I hereby reassign all pending cases to myself.

Until further notice from the Office of Public Hearings, all scheduling orders are hereby suspended and all scheduled proceedings are hereby postponed.

After the appointment or reappointment of the Human Rights Referees to the term commencing July 1, 2011, parties in each case will be notified of a date for a Status Conference or other proceeding to schedule and resume the case.

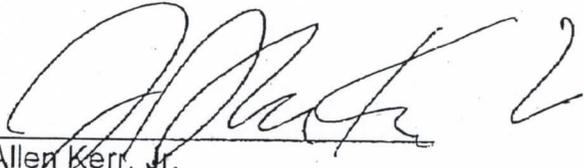

All new cases certified to public hearing will be given priority in the scheduling of hearing conferences, following the appointment of Human Rights Referees to the term commencing July 1, 2011.

All Whistleblower Cases will be given scheduling priority following the appointment of Human Rights Referees to the term commencing July 1, 2011.

SO ORDERED.
