

RACIAL PROFILING TOWN HALL MEETING AGENDA

Moderators: CHRO Attorneys Michelle Dumas Keuler, and Cheryl A. Sharp

Introduction & Acknowledgements Michelle Dumas Keuler and Cheryl A. Sharp

Welcome Interim Executive Director Tanya Hughes

Public Meeting Address Commissioner Gary Collins, CHRO

CHRO Process Michelle Dumas Keuler and Cheryl A. Sharp

CTRP3 Ken Barone, Project Staff @ Central

The Perspective of a Law Enforcement Officer Chief of Police Neil Dryfe, Town of Cheshire

The Department of Justice Ndidi Moses (invited), Assistant U.S. Attorney

ACLU Sandra Staub, Legal Director

CT NAACP Tamara Lanier

Questions and Answers General Public

Panel Members:

Ndidi Moses, DOJ Ken Barone, Project Staff @ Central Chief Neil Dryfe, Cheshire
Alix Simonetti, CHRO Attorney Glen Cassis, African American Affairs Commission

CHRO Commissioners:

Gary H. Collins Edward Mambruno Cheryl Lynn Clarke Tracey Gove
Dawn Niles Cesar A. Noble Andrew M. Norton Edith Pestana Patricia J. Wrice

The CHRO would like to thank all of the co-sponsors of this event that make this evening possible. The mission of the Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities is to eliminate discrimination through civil and human rights law enforcement and to establish equal opportunity and justice for all persons within the state through advocacy and education.

