

CHRO

State of Connecticut
Commission on Human Rights & Opportunities

DISCUSSION TOPICS:

- Discrimination
- Protected Classes
- Intake
- Investigation
- The Law
- The Public Hearing Process

Discrimination is Illegal
The CHRO enforces anti-discrimination laws in Employment, Housing, Credit and Places of Public Accommodation such as schools, stores, etc.

DISCRIMINATION is unfair treatment or denial of normal privileges to persons because they belong to a protected class. Discrimination is a failure to treat all persons equally where no reasonable distinction can be found between those favored and those not favored.

*Have you ever been discriminated against?
Do you want to understand the CHRO's process?
Do you want to meet representatives from CHRO's investigative and legal staff?*

RSVP cheryl.sharp@ct.gov

For more information contact Cheryl Sharp at (860) 541-3450

INSIDE THE CHRO'S COMPLAINT PROCESS
BRIDGEPORT

Co-sponsors:

Please join the Executive Director of the CHRO, Robert Brothers, Jr., Public Hearing Referees, the Manager of the Southwest Region, Tanya Hughes & CHRO Attorneys and Investigators for an INFORMATIONAL SESSION

WHEN: Monday, DECEMBER 13, 2010
WHERE: Burroughs-Saden Library
925 BROAD STREET
BRIDGEPORT, CT
TIME: 5:00-7:00 P.M.

ADMISSION IS FREE

CONNECTICUT

"Power Beyond Measure"

