

RACIAL PROFILING TOWN HALL MEETING AGENDA --Willimantic

Moderators: CHRO Attys. Michelle Dumas Keuler, Cheryl A. Sharp & Robin Fox

Racial Profiling Project	Welcome & Introduction Executive Director Tanya Hughes
Public Meeting Address	Mae Flexer, State Representative Susan Johnson, State Representative
CHRO & Racial Profiling Complaints	Attys. Michelle Keuler & Cheryl Sharp, CHRO
CTRP3	Ken Barone, Project Staff @ CCSU
The Perspective of a Suburban Law Enforcement Officer	Chief of Police Neil Dryfe, Town of Cheshire
The Community	Chief of Police Lisa Maruzo-Bolduc, Willimantic
CHRO Training and Outreach on Racial Profiling	Robin Fox & Charles Krich, CHRO
Questions and Answers	General Public (2 minute time limit per person)

Panel Members:

Ken Barone, Project Staff @ Central; Chief Neil Dryfe, Cheshire; Robin Fox, CHRO

CHRO Commissioners:

Gary H. Collins Edward Mambruno Tracey Gove
Dawn Niles Andrew M. Norton Edith Pestana

The CHRO would like to thank Commissioner Dawn Niles for inviting the agency to discuss the changes to the Alvin W. Penn Act. The mission of the Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities is to eliminate discrimination through civil and human rights law enforcement and to establish equal opportunity and justice for all persons within the state through advocacy and education.