SENTENCING COMMISSION ANNOUNCES NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

(New Britain, CT)--The Connecticut Sentencing Commission is pleased to announce the appointment of Alex Tsarkov as Commission Executive Director. Tsarkov, who previously worked for Judicial Branch Court Support Services Division, assumed the position in mid-November.

"It is an honor and a privilege to have been selected to assist the Connecticut Sentencing Commission in this capacity," said Tsarkov. "The Commission is moving in a great direction, and it is an exciting time to work in the field of criminal justice policy and be a part of this Commission's bright future."

Tsarkov succeeds Acting Executive Director Andrew Clark. Since the Commission's inception in 2010, Mr. Clark has run the Sentencing Commission on a part-time basis while continuing to work as the Director of Central Connecticut State University's Institute for Municipal and Regional Policy. He will continue to serve in an advisory capacity to the Commission.

Alex holds a Master of Public Policy degree from Trinity College and is in his final year at the University of Connecticut School of Law.
