Please remember certain calls are not violations of the law. The following is a list of unsolicited telephone calls that are permissible even if a consumer has placed his/her name on the "Do Not Call" list.

1. Calls made for non-commercial purpose, such as polls, surveys, and political purposes.
2. Calls made in response to the consumer's written or verbal request.
3. Calls made by tax-exempt, non-profit organizations, such as charities.
4. Calls made as a result of a visit by the consumer to a business.
5. Calls made to consumers with whom they have a current business relationship.
6. Calls made by a solicitor in their first year of doing business in CT.
7. Calls made in connection with the compiling of telephone directories.
8. Calls made in connection with an existing debt or contract for which payment or performance is not yet completed.
