Explanation of State Impact of Regulation:

No fiscal impact is anticipated. The Department of Consumer Protection currently implements the existing regulation concerning continuing education classes for electricians. No additional costs for enforcement or compliance are anticipated.

Explanation of Municipal Impact of Regulation:

No impact on municipalities is anticipated. The Department has jurisdiction over these regulations.

Explanation of Small Business Impact of Regulation:

This proposed regulation merely reduces the minimum number of hours of annual continuing education classes from seven (7) hours to four (4), but allows the Electrical Work Board to ask the Commissioner to increase the classroom time, as needed, up to a maximum of seven (7) hours. Please see the attached Small Business Impact Statement for more details.

Is a regulatory flexibility analysis required pursuant to C.G.S. 4-168a? No.

SMALL BUSINESS IMPACT STATEMENT

Prior to adopting a new section or amendment, Section 4-168a of the Connecticut General Statutes (C.G.S.) requires that each state agency consider the affect of such action on small businesses as defined in C.G.S. Section 4-168a. When such a regulatory action may have an adverse affect on small businesses, C.G.S. Section 4-168a directs the agency to consider regulatory requirements that will minimize the adverse impacts on small businesses if the addition of such requirements (1) will not interfere with the intended objectives of the regulatory action and (2) will allow the new section or amendment to remain consistent with public health, safety and welfare.

State Agency submitting proposed regulations: Department of Consumer Protection

Subject matter of Regulation: Continuing Education for Electricians

In accordance with C.G.S. Section 4-168a, on April 4, 2012, agency staff analyzed the affect on small businesses of the proposed regulations and determined the following:

Check the appropriate box:

- The regulatory action will not have an affect on small businesses.
- The regulatory action will have an affect on small businesses, but will not have an adverse affect on such small businesses.
- The regulatory action may have an adverse affect on small businesses, and no alternative considered would be both as effective in achieving the purpose of the action and less burdensome to potentially affected small business. Alternatives considered include the following:
 - (1) The establishment of less stringent compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses;
 - (2) The establishment of less stringent schedules or deadlines for compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses;
 - (3) The consolidation or simplification of compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses;
 - (4) The establishment of performance standards for small businesses to replace design or operational standards required in the new section or amendment; and
 - (5) The exemption of small businesses from all or any part of the requirements contained in the new section or amendment.
- The regulatory action will have an adverse affect on small businesses that cannot be minimized in a manner that is consistent with public health, safety and welfare.

The Department of Consumer Protection notified / (did not notify) the Department of Economic and Community Development of its intent to take the proposed action, and completed / (did not complete) the Agency Fiscal Estimate of Proposed Regulations.

This proposed regulation merely reduces the minimum hours of annual continuing education classes for electrical license holders operating in all size businesses. A provision for adding additional classroom time, up to the current seven (7) hours, is included. Less hours of classroom time may lead to a small cost savings for small businesses, since electricians will spend more time on the job.
