

Addendum to June 10, 2011 Press Release: State Announces Convictions in 33 Home Improvement Cases

The Office of the Attorney General won convictions in 33 cases between January 4 and June 6, 2011 against the following contractors, along with their sentence and restitution they were ordered to pay:

Name	Hometown	Prison Sentence	Restitution
Richard Tarallo	Middletown (4 cases)		$7,067
Daniel Copplea	New Haven		$6,525
Richard Peavey	Pawcatuck		$ 850
Carl Basile	Agawam, MA (5 cases)		$82,750
Timothy Martin	Goshen		$21,000
Shawn Rainey	Terryville (Plymouth)		$ 500
Richard Gray	Manchester		$1,000
Richard Signore	Wallingford		$5,000
Vincent Lago	Ansonia	2 months in jail
Michael Scatena	Southington (2 cases)		$8,912
Allan Tibbetts	West Hartford		$18,000
Richard Koslik	Springfield, MA (3 cases)	2 years in jail
Karl Lindroth	Hebron (2 cases)		$ 3,300
Dana Oullette	Bristol		$ 3,000
Robert Cushman	Ellington		$ 500
Timothy O'Hara	Washingtonville, NY		$50,000
Clifford Wolters	Hebron		$2,200
Jeffrey Chirillo	Fairfield		$5,075
Alexander Perzan,	Coventry		$ 850
Timothy McGuire	East Hartford		$3,106
Edward Silvestri	New Fairfield		-----
Brian Zysek	Plainville		-----

In addition, five other contractors placed in pretrial diversion programs and ordered to pay $13,000 in restitution.

The cases were handled by Associate Attorney General Joseph Rubin and Assistant Attorneys General Michael J. Giammatteo; Matthew B. Beizer; Matthew Fitzsimmons; Carmel Motherway; Maura Murphy-Osborne; Nicole Demers; Gregory O'Connell; and Michael Martone, executive policy advisor and counsel.