Andrea Barton Reeves, Esq. Joins HARC, Inc. as Vice President, Administration

HARC, Inc. is pleased to announce that Andrea Barton Reeves, Esq. has joined the organization as Vice President of Administration. Ms. Barton Reeves has considerable experience in the area of administration and the law. She has practiced in the areas of civil litigation and insurance defense in major law firms in New York and Connecticut for the past five years. She has represented abused and neglected children in a variety of courts in Connecticut and was also a staff attorney with Lawyers for Children America, where she taught other attorneys to represent children pro bono in child protection matters. Prior to becoming an attorney Andrea spent eight years in the insurance industry as a manager at Chubb and Son in New Jersey.

Ms. Barton Reeves has a rich background of serving the community, including service on the boards of directors of The Junior League of Hartford and The Village for Families and Children. Other volunteer service has included the Connecticut Bar Association and the Crawford Black Bar Association.

Ms. Barton Reeves' achievements have been recognized with awards, including the 2009 Family Champion Award, Connecticut Council of Family Service Agencies, Leadership Greater Hartford “Quest Class” and the Hartford Business Journal’s “40 under Forty” Award. She was the 2008 James Cooper Fellow, Connecticut Bar Association.

Ms. Barton Reeves received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in English from Rutgers University and a Juris Doctor from New York Law School.

Ms. Barton Reeves lives in Glastonbury with her family.

HARC is a nonprofit organization dedicated to improving the lives of people with intellectual disability and their families. It was founded in 1951 by parents of disabled children, and is now a strong advocate for civil rights and opportunities, and a major provider of clinical and supportive services that span the entire lifetime.

HARC currently operates 11 group homes and condominiums and 28 supported employment sites throughout Greater Hartford. HARC is a Community Investment Partner of United Way of Central and Northeastern Connecticut and serves Greater Hartford. HARC’s website is www.harc-ct.org.
