

Employment For ALL: A Day of Thinking Creatively About Jobs

By Marilyn & Joe Henn of Macedonia, Ohio

April 29, 2010
9:00 am – 4:00 pm
State Police Training Academy
285 Preston Avenue
Meriden, CT 06450

Program

9:00am-Noon

"You Can't Put a Square Peg in a Round Hole: Finding & Funding a Pragmatic Path to Supported Employment"

12:00-1:30 pm

Lunch on your own

1:30-4:00 pm

"How to Pick an Adult Service Provider"

Anyone interested in knowing how to be creative with employment, CMs, Resource Managers, Transition Coordinators, Consumers, Families, Private Providers is welcome to register

Registration: FREE!

All we ask is you share what you learn with those that are unable to attend. Must RSVP by 4/23 to Email: DDS.Training@ct.gov
FAX: (860) 706-5660 Voicemail: (860) 418-6190
Please make sure you state the "Henn Event" in all RSVPs

Marilyn & Joe Henn are parents of a daughter with significant autism who received APSE's 1999 Supported Employment national award & ASA's 2003 national award for Outstanding Individual with Autism. They have presented nationally and as keynote speakers on how they developed transition services that led to their daughter's full-time employment as a mail courier and microfilmer. Marilyn Henn, a registered nurse has received extensive training in behavior management, transition, and supported employment from experts across the country. Joe Henn, a retired executive in tire, rubber and metal parts forming businesses, has become an expert in Social Security Work Incentives, Medicaid, MR/DD funding and housing. He currently manages a family consortium home and has become a limited service provider of habilitation and job coaching services.