- 09/18- Dirty Rotten Scoundrels 860-283-6250 $18-22
10/03 Based on the popular 1988 film, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels centers on two con men living on the French Riviera. The first is the suave and sophisticated Lawrence Jameson, who makes his lavish living by talking rich ladies out of their money. The other, a small-time crook named Freddy Benson, more humbly swindles women by wakening their compassion with fabricated stories about his grandmother's failing health. After meeting on a train, they unsuccessfully attempt to work together only to find that this small French town isn't big enough for the two of them. They agree on a settlement: the first one to extract $50,000 from a young female target, heiress Christine Colgate, wins and the other must leave town. A hilarious battle of cons ensues, that will keep audiences laughing, humming and guessing to the end! Contains some adult language and humor and may not be suitable for those under 13.

- 09/30- The Marvelous Wonderettes 203-757-4676 $
10/24 Connecticut Premiere! Marissa Perry (Tracy, Hairspray: Broadway) is a Marvelous Wonderette in our musical blast from the past. Meet Betty Jean, Cindy Lou, Missy and Suzy, four girls with hopes and dreams as big as their crinoline skirts and voices to match. As they unite to entertain at their high school prom we're treated to such classic 50's & 60's songs as "Dream Lover," "Mr. Sandman," "Lipstick on Your Collar," "Hold Me, Thrill Me, Kiss Me," "It's In His Kiss" and so many more! The harmonies are close, the rivalries are intense and the hair is huge (so is the fun!).

- 10/02- 4 Troops 860-489-7180 $27
 7:00p 4TROOPS are United States combat veterans - three young men and one woman who served on the front lines in Iraq and Afghanistan. They sing well-known positive pop and country songs that inspire all who listen. While overseas, music played a crucial and very personal role in all of their lives, singing at everything from large military events to more intimate settings, where they would jam in their bunk after a long day in the field and try to recall a slice of home. 4TROOPS also used their voices at somber occasions like memorial services, where they would sing to remember those that had been lost. 4TROOPS now come together for a singular purpose: to sing on behalf of all troops, to honor their sacrifices and to create awareness for their needs with their patriot songs.
 4TROOPS released their debut self-titled CD during Armed Forces Week (May 8-May 15) with a portion of the proceeds from the sales to benefit veteran-related organizations. The group, made up of Former Cpt. Meredith Melcher, Former Sgt. Daniel Jens, Staff Sgt. (Ret.) Ron Henry and Former Sgt. David Clemo, recently taped their concert special from the U.S.S. Intrepid in New York City. "4TROOPS: Live From The Intrepid," will air on participating PBS stations this summer. They have also performed on the CBS Early Show, Fox & Friends, and Good Morning America.

- 10/02 Four Bitchin' Babes (203) 438-3889 $40
 8:00p After seven recordings and nearly 20 years as The Four Bitchin' Babes, these indestructible Divas are hotter than ever. Literally! Always evolving, witty and charming, the Babes welcome in a new era with a new cast, and a new show entitled Hormonal Imbalance... A Mood Swinging Musical Revue! Spend an evening with these outrageously funny and multi-talented musicians as they examine and ultimately celebrate the lives of today's women. With sorority sister chemistry they perform original songs and stories offering both poignant views and unbridled comedic commentary on the joys and dilemmas of everyday life. With heavenly harmony, they share our struggles to balance careers and family, chocolate obsessions and low carb inner peace, CNN and TV Land, and finally, dealing with inadequate pay and nadequately cut swimwear. All together now girls -- "Oooooo, big ouch!"

- 10/02 Bob Franke 203-272-8404 $14-16
 8:00p Bob Franke is at the peak of his considerable craft; brimming with the wise and spiritually generous songs for which he is best known, along with wrenchingly convincing topical songs and sugared with the hilarious. His are the kind of songs that really do have the power to change the world by being taken into the lives of people. They come to you, these songs. As Tom Paxton says, "It's his integrity. I always think of Bob as if Emerson and Thoreau had picked up acoustic guitars and gotten into songwriting. There's touches of Mark Twain and Buddy Holly in there, too." Bob's songs are considered classics, fueled by his deep faith and the real-life lessons taught him by his 30-odd years of playing everywhere from concert halls to street corners. "Bob Franke writes the kind of songs that will still be sung a hundred years from now." - Christine Lavin.

- 10/03 Bernie Williams (203) 438-3889 $60-70
 8:00p An Evening of Wine and Jazz: Enjoy a free wine tasting and gourmet hors d'ouvres compliments of local wine shops and Ancona's market in the lobby one hour prior to showtime!
 Critically acclaimed guitarist/songwriter and famed NY Yankees star BERNIE WILLIAMS has signed a recording contract with REFORM RECORDS for his sophomore album MOVING FORWARD. The Puerto Rico native and five-time All Star is a classically- trained musician who developed his love for playing guitar alongside baseball, while listening to salsa, merengue and 80's rock. MOVING FORWARD embraces those early influences, while also reflecting a unique mixture of classical and jazz guitar topped-off with additional Latin rhythms. While few young athletes have either the inclination or time to pursue serious study of music, Williams credits his musical side for playing an important part in his baseball success.
 Ridgefield Playhouse, 80 East Ridge <http://www.ridgefieldplayhouse.org/allshows.asp>

- 10/03 Imagined: The John Lennon Song 860-542-5531 $35-45
 8:00p Fans of the late John Lennon will undoubtedly commemorate what would have been his 70th birthday on October 9, 2010 in a variety of ways. One of the most unique tributes will come from folk/rock artists Rex Fowler of Aztec Two-Step and Tom Dean of Devonsquare. Together, as The John Lennon Song Project, they have produced Imagined, a thoughtfully re-imagined tribute that celebrates the genius and artistry of Lennon's music. The tribute combines a number of his best known Beatles songs in new and unexpected ways, weaving melody, lyric and song together in a series of singles and mini-medleys.

- 10/15 Mary Gauthier (203) 431-6501 $20-25
 8:00p "There's freedom in knowing that you don't have to know it all," she says, "which is why to me, a song should end with a question, not an answer." It might seem that after six groundbreaking albums of original songs, more than a dozen years of recording and touring around the world, a harvest of music industry awards, and covers of her songs by a roster of great artists – that Mary Gauthier (say it: go-shay) should have a handle on some of the big answers. Yet with each new album, with each new cycle of songs that illuminate her soul, with each old and new set of characters and life changes she introduces, Mary is always ending up with more questions. Where do her people come from and where do they go? How can they find shelter from the storm? What is the truth? Mary Gauthier lives each day at a time, keeping the demons at bay, always looking for answers, always asking questions. "I've e all wanderers of sorts, we are all looking for meaning in lives that contain no guarantees.

- 10/16 Mark Erelli 203-272-8404 $14-16
 8:00p "It is an injustice to an artist, and often a great weight on his shoulders, to declare a performer to be the heir to some great musical tradition. Mark Erelli, however, embodies many of the best qualities of the folk-populist lineage that began with Woody Guthrie, and is carried today by Bruce Springsteen and others. His songs are unwaveringly and powerfully sincere, carrying the force of his experiences and passions, and applying them to emotions that are universal to us all. His voice, a beautiful combination of wine and whiskey, is as intimately conversational as a fireside chat." - Sing Out!, May 7, 2009.

- 10/17 Kenny White (203) 431-6501 $17-20
 4:00p “I’d have to say that Kenny White has earned a place among my favorite singer/songwriters...and particularly, lyricists. As we say in the trade “he goes deep.” A true wordsmith AND musician who reveals a fine sense of humor, as well. Put on your headphones and listen carefully.”- David Crosby.
- “Not many artists have the capacity to be melodic, intelligent and direct all at the same time. Kenny is one of the few. He has clearly been steeped in music and self-inflicted torture for so long that he is able to combine haunting melody with acid poetry and still almost effortlessly say exactly what’s on his mind. For all its darkness, this is a joyful record. The musicianship and arrangements produce a passion and energy that is uplifting. And Kenny’s voice is so sweet and vulnerable that you’ll forgive him anything.”- Jonathan Spottiswoode
