Highlights of this year's conference will include:

A keynote presentation by Robyn Powell, J.D. & Ella Callow, J.D., authors of the National Council on Disabilities' Rocking the Cradle report: Ensuring the Rights of Parents with Disabilities. This report has been called "groundbreaking" in its illumination of societal barriers faced by parents with disabilities.

A family panel featuring Bonnie and Myra Brown, a mom with intellectual disabilities and an intellectually gifted daughter, who gained national recognition after sharing their story on NPR's Story Corp.

A keynote presentation by Sandra Azar, Ph.D. titled "Beyond IQ scores: A More Nuanced View of the Link Between Cognition and Parenting."

A panel presentation by leaders in the field from the United States and Canada

In addition, opportunities will be provided for:

- parents to meet other parents in similar situations
- networking and learning from parents, their children, agencies in the community and experts in the field and across disciplines.

And much more!
