The Creative Housing Workgroup (CHW) seeks to partner with all stakeholders, including families, individuals, community members, legislators and state agencies to maintain existing housing options and develop new and sustainable housing options, for people with disabilities in CT

We are very excited to invite Providers to join us this year! Come and meet families and individuals who need your services. We want to partner with you to maintain our housing options and create new ones.

If you and or your organization provide residential support to people with disabilities, or if you are interested in information about residential supports for someone with a disability, if you are a person with a disability or know someone with a disability, who is looking for a roommate or residential supports, you are invited to attend.

The CTFSN is a community partner with L&M Hospital

Press Release April 23, 2018

The Creative Housing Workgroup (CHW) will hold its 5th annual Roommate Match on June 14, from 6-8 pm at Camp Harkness in Waterford, CT <http://www.ct.gov/dds/cwp/view.asp?a=2036&Q=459244>

This meeting for anyone who is concerned about Housing or Residential Supports for someone with a disability, that includes; people who are looking for a roommate for their son or daughter with a disability, individuals with a disability who are looking for a roommate, and people who may have a home or a living situation they would like to share.

The event is free. People are welcome to bring their own brown bag dinner. Registration is required. Contact: April Dipollina: adipollina@lmhosp.org 860-271-4371.

The Creative Housing Workgroup is a group of proactive parents, caregivers and self-advocates who are working together to find supports, and create solutions, for life in the community for individuals with disabilities.

The Creative Housing Workgroup welcomes new people. Come and share your thoughts, ideas and help us build a better life in the community for people with disabilities.
