Information provided by the provider describing their agency:

Oak Hill helps people with disabilities experience rich, fulfilling lives in communities throughout Connecticut. Through education, assistive technology, programs and advocacy, we support them at every stage of life. We also provide a robust array of services to those people who work with, live with and care for people challenged by disabilities. Founded in 1893 as an orphanage for two boys who were blind, today Oak Hill is one of the largest private nonprofit community provider of services for people with disabilities in Connecticut, providing services and solutions to thousands of adults of all ages with disabilities (intellectual, developmental, physical disabilities including visual impairments) each year.

Oak Hill is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation. Our legal name is The Connecticut Institute for the Blind, Inc., d/b/a, Oak Hill, a recognized nonprofit corporation. Our Mission: "To enhance independence and quality of life for people with disabilities, including visual impairments, by setting the standard in providing innovative solutions, program excellence, services, and advocacy."
