

THE RECENTLY ENACTED ENERGY bill includes a $1 billion provision to help the construction industry. As proposed by Sen. George Voinovich (R-OH), state agencies and other organizations will be eligible to receive federal funding over the next five years to retrofit or replace older diesel engines. This federal money should help to reduce the financial burden on the transportation construction industry and help state's meet federal air quality emission standards.