

This document contains the Connecticut regulations for Fees for safe boating certificate courses and examinations and for issuing safe boating certificates, temporary safe boating certificates and duplicate certificates. These regulations became effective on July 8, 2011. This document was prepared by the State of Connecticut Department of Energy and Environmental Protection and is provided for the convenience of the reader. This is not the official version of the regulations. The official regulations are published by the State of Connecticut, Judicial Branch, Commission on Official Legal Publications in the Connecticut Law Journal. In the event there is inconsistency between this document and the regulations as published in the Connecticut Law Journal, the Connecticut Law Journal publication will serve as the official version.

Sec. 15-140f-4. Fees for safe boating certificate courses and examinations and for issuing safe boating certificates, temporary safe boating certificates and duplicate certificates.

- (a) There shall be no fee for an approved course in safe boating operation taught by Department of Environmental Protection personnel or its agents.
- (b) The fee for a safe boating certificate equivalency examination shall be seventy five dollars for any person taking such examination.
- (c) The fee for issuance of a safe boating certificate or temporary safe boating certificate shall be fifty dollars.
- (d) The Commissioner may set a fee for issuance of a duplicate safe boating certificate of twenty dollars.
- (e) Duplicate certificates issued because of name change due to marriage or divorce shall be free of charge.
- (f) The fee payable under this section for an equivalency examination shall be paid prior to taking such examination. Fees for issuance of certificates payable under this section shall accompany the application for a safe boating certificate, temporary safe boating certificate or duplicate certificate.