

Fig. 3. Profile of Mill River within the Mount Carmel quadrangle, with profiles of terraces of ice-contact stratified drift in Mill River and Willow Brook Valleys. The line of profile is not straight, but bends slightly with bends in the valley. Terrace profiles are composite, representing average altitudes across the width of each terrace at each latitude. Most of the basins shown in the terrace profiles are kettles.

Open Report