Northeast States Emergency Consortium 2008 Emergency Manager of the Year Award

The Northeast States Emergency Consortium (NESEC) is seeking nominations for the Twelfth Annual Emergency Manager of the Year Award. The NESEC 2008 Emergency Manager of the Year Award Program will honor eight individuals, one from each NESEC State, who have made outstanding contributions in the field of emergency management during calendar year 2007.

The Emergency Manager of the Year Award program is committed to recognizing individuals who have exhibited the highest standard of excellence, dedication, and accomplishment in the field of emergency management. We are very interested in nominees whose efforts in disaster preparedness, mitigation, response or recovery have resulted in or will result in savings of life, injury or property in time of disaster or emergency.

The award will be presented to individuals who have:

1. Made an outstanding contribution to emergency management in 2007, and
2. Have managed, created or facilitated significant programs or projects within their area of responsibility that resulted in, or has the potential to result in, savings of life, injury or property from the impact of disasters or emergencies.

Nominees for the awards will be drawn from the entire emergency management community in the states of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New York, New Jersey, Rhode Island and Vermont. Each state office of emergency management is requested to solicit and evaluate all state nominations, select a state nominee, and forward the name and application of their nominee to NESEC no later than April 15, 2008. The application for your nominee must be signed and approved by the State Director of Emergency Management or equivalent position on or before April 9, 2008. The awards will be announced at a NESEC Board Meeting or other suitable venues within each state.

Nominations are encouraged from all levels of emergency management including local, state, tribal and federal government, as well as non-profit organizations, businesses, private citizens and volunteers.
