OVERVIEW OF INCIDENT

On 04/08/2013 at 0025 hours, Connecticut State Police Troop B dispatch received a 911 call from the neighbor of #343 Main St. New Hartford reporting that his neighbor had been robbed by three masked Hispanic males at gunpoint at his residence. The victim reported he returned home at 2330 hours and was approached at the rear of his residence by three masked Hispanic males at gunpoint. The homeowner was forced back into his residence by the perpetrators and demanded money. The residence was burglarized and the perpetrators evaded the scene on RT 44 east bound towards Canton at a high rate of speed with multiple electronic devices and two long guns from the residence. No injuries were reported. Connecticut State Police Troopers responded and secured the crime scene along with State Police Major Crime Detectives. Neighboring agencies were all notified of the incident and are investigating all possible leads. Anyone with information or may have observed anything is urged to contact the Connecticut State Police Major Crime Unit at 860-824-2514.
