

Explore Exporting: A seminar on why to export

Thursday, February 9, 2012 | Berlin, CT
Northeast Utilities, 107 Selden Road, Berlin, CT 06037
8am-1pm

Brought to you by the Food Export USA, CT Department of Agriculture, CT District Export Council, and Northeast Utilities

Attention All Connecticut Food & Agricultural Companies!

Have you considered exporting? Are you wondering if it's something your business should pursue.

Join us on February 9th for this FREE seminar to learn the benefits of exporting and the services available to assist you with the process. Lunch will be provided at no charge. One-on-one meetings will be available after lunch to answer questions and help you determine if exporting is right for your business.

Topics covered will include:

- the benefits of exporting
- why now is a good time to export
- financial assistance to make exports happen
- support available to companies looking to export

Speakers James Spallone, Deputy Secretary of the State; Anne Evans, District Director US Department of Commerce, International Trade Administration; and Linda Rooney from Food Export USA Northeast will explain why your company should take advantage of this excellent opportunity.
