To: Subsidized Senior Housing Facilities/Town Social Service Offices

Thank you for your interest in the Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program. This is an outstanding program that helps eligible seniors enjoy fresh, nutritious, locally grown fruits, vegetables, and fresh cut herbs.

Please review the rules of this program, fill out the form, fax or mail it back. Feel free to call if you have any additional questions.

Eligibility guidelines for the Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program(SFMNP):

All participants must have a maximum household income of not more than 185 percent of the annual poverty income guidelines.

Single Person = $18,130
Couple = $24,420

The state definition of a senior is any person 62 or older, or any person with a permanent disability, living in subsidized senior complex. Subsidized senior housing requirements are published by the state of Connecticut Department of Economic and Community Development using HUD guidelines. Congregate meal programs have registration data on all clients. Those with incomes below 185% will be flagged, and only they will be given checks.

Services to be performed by Local Coordinating Agency (LCA):

1. Use materials provided by the Connecticut Department of Agriculture to alert Senior participants in advance to the Farmers' Market Nutrition Program
2. Provide secure locked storage for Farmers' Market checks.
3. Verify eligibility and distribute Farmers' Market checks to eligible Seniors in participating Senior housing programs.
4. Issue Farmers' Market checks to eligible Senior participants only. (Seniors in subsidized housing, renter rebate programs and/or congregate meal programs)
5. Farmers' Market checks must be issued as follows:
**Fifteen dollars ($15) worth of checks will be given to each eligible participant.*
6. Provide an accounting of the Farmers' Market checks to the Connecticut Department of Agriculture using the check registers. Accounting of checks should be identified as distributed (Senior signature on register), unclaimed, damaged, unused, lost, stolen or voided.
7. Distribute information concerning location of Farmers' Markets and use of checks to each Senior participant.
