

Norfolk County Agricultural High School's
Livestock Producer's Conference

Saturday, March 3, 2007, 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM

At Norfolk County Agricultural High School, 400 Main Street, Walpole, MA 02081

A livestock conference with workshops for llama, cattle, sheep and swine producers who would like to expand their knowledge of progressive management techniques.

Some of the workshop topics include:

- Cooking demos by Johnson and Wales University's culinary staff
- Ultrasounding Sheep for Pregnancy Detection
- Llama Veterinary Care
- An Introduction to Fibers and Spinning
- Livestock Feeding Basics 101
- How to Select Quality Hay for Your Animals
- Hay, Pasture or Both – You decide!
- Calving Season Preparation
- Raising Healthy Hogs
- USDA Animal Processing Update
- New Fundraisers and Activities for 4-H Clubs

Cost: Adults $30, Youth (under 12) $20
INCLUDES LUNCH AND THE TRADE SHOW

To register, obtain a registration form at our website www.norfolkaggie.org. Send this form with your payment (checks made out to NCAHS) to David Green, Norfolk County Agricultural High School, 400 Main Street, Walpole, MA 02081. If you have questions, call (508) 668-0268 ext 293