

Oxford Larkin State Park Trail

Trail Highlights

This trail is a section of a 9-mile continuous trail that begins in Southbury and ends in Naugatuck. This 3.75-mile section begins at the Southbury town line, where it connects with the Southbury section of the trail. After traveling a short distance, the trail crosses Pope Road. The trail then heads south for about 0.5 miles until it crosses Hawley Road. Then the trail goes 0.8 miles east before it crosses Christian Street. Next, the trail turns northeast and heads 0.6 miles to Larkey Road, and then another 0.7 miles to Riggs Street. After 0.6 miles the trail crosses Towantic Hill Road. Presently, this section of trail from Towantic Hill Road east to Long Meadow Pond Road (Griswold Road) is closed due to private ownership. Trail users must proceed along Towantic Hill Road to Long Meadow Road and then onto the trail again.

Remember, horses have the right of way.

Parking and Accessibility

No designated parking area is available for trail users.

From I-84: Take exit 16 to Route 188 South. Follow Route 188 South for about 1.3 miles to Hurley Road. Turn left onto Hurley Road #1, and then right onto Pope Road. Pope Road will intersect with the trail after a short distance.
