

Comment on DOT's Title VI Program

The Connecticut Department of Transportation is encouraging the public and all interested parties to review and comment on the Department's Draft 2011 Federal Transit Administration (FTA) Title VI Program. This document has been developed to establish institutional processes and procedures that will foster an equitable and inclusive public transportation program. DOT Commissioner James P. Redeker said he is "committed to the Department's full implementation and compliance with this program."
