

Save the Date

*Due to a conflicting event, the date has changed. Please note the new date below.
The program time and location are unchanged.*

The Fifth Interactive Workshop to Combat Healthcare-Associated Infections (HAIs)

Healthcare-Associated Infections Program

Connecticut Department of Public Health

Topics

Morning Program

Clostridium difficile Infection: Strategies for Identification, Management, and Infection Control

Environmental Cleaning: The Who, What, Where, and How

Afternoon Program

Sustaining a Culture Change: Tools and Strategies to Use to Keep the Inspiration Alive

Speakers

Morning Program

Brian Koll, MD, FACP, Chief of Infection Control, Beth Israel Medical Center, NYC, NY

John M. Boyce, MD, Section Chief of Infectious Diseases, Hospital of St. Raphael, New Haven, CT

Michael Parry, MD, Director of Infectious Diseases and Microbiology, Stamford Hospital Professor of Clinical Medicine, Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons

Afternoon Program

Todd Mohrmann, President, Dynamic Training, Inc.

Wednesday, December 1, 2010 (Date Change)

8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

at

The CT Society of Certified Public Accountants (CSCPA) Education Center
Rocky Hill, CT

Mark your calendars! Registration details to follow.

This material was prepared by Qualidigm, the Medicare Quality Improvement Organization for Connecticut, under contract with the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), an agency of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The contents do not necessarily reflect CMS policy. Pub#CT-803300-2010114.