Agnieszka,

REJA is not able to make the hearing tonight and due to communication mishap it did not send out pre-notice of the hearing. As to the interrogatories, REJA's accountant was deep into his personal tax season and was thus delayed sending answers and documents needed for some of the interrogatories. I have been sent compliance from all parties and should be able to file very shortly, if not by later today.

Can we move the hearing out one more time?
