

SCENARIOS

Group Table Top Exercises

SCENARIO 1

- ◎ 3 family pre 1978 dwelling
- ◎ Abatement being done under historical building guidelines and HUD funds
- ◎ Contractor is found to be dry sanding and using minimal containment
- ◎ First floor vacant, second and third floors occupied, no children
- ◎ Dust/debris on porch, in yard and on neighbor's car

SCENARIO 2

- ◉ Complaint received from an anonymous caller
- ◉ Homeowner sanding at pre 1978 home
- ◉ Teenage children in residence
- ◉ Single family owner occupied

SCENARIO 3

- ⦿ Blood lead level results received for a child
- ⦿ Child is 4 years old
- ⦿ Blood lead level is a 17 capillary
- ⦿ Confirmatory blood lead test is a 22 venous

SCENARIO 4

- ◎ You receive a call from a frantic mother living at rental property built in 1910
- ◎ Mother has found her 3 year old picking at defective paint on a wall
- ◎ Mother thinks child may have ingested paint chip
- ◎ Local health department advises mother to get child tested (venous test)
- ◎ Blood lead test is a 46 venous

SCENARIO 5

- ⦿ A 2 year old child receives a venous test result of 16 on December 15, 2012
- ⦿ Same child receives a follow up venous test result of 18 on March 20, 2013
- ⦿ Child lives in post 1978 three family home

SCENARIO 6

- ⦿ Blood lead level received for an elementary school aged child
- ⦿ Blood lead level is 23 venous
- ⦿ Family resides in single family home

SCENARIO 7

- ◉ Blood lead level received for a teenager
- ◉ Blood lead level is a 27 venous
- ◉ Child resides in a post 1978 single family dwelling with no identified hazards

SCENARIO 8

- ◉ Blood lead level received for a 3 year old
- ◉ Blood lead level is 32 venous
- ◉ Child resides in post 1978 dwelling
- ◉ Child spends 30 hours/week at a family daycare
- ◉ Family daycare is in a three family dwelling built in 1956
- ◉ First floor is where daycare is located
- ◉ Children reside on the second and third floors at property

SCENARIO 9

- ◎ You receive a call from DCF
- ◎ DCF worker states that he took a paint chip sample in a pre-1978 home
- ◎ Homeowner is attempting to become a foster parent
- ◎ There are three children who reside at the home, all over the age of 8

SCENARIO 10

- ⦿ Complaint received by DPH about power sanding at a preschool
- ⦿ Local health department confirms nature of complaint
- ⦿ Preschool building constructed in 1913