The Connecticut Health Disparities Project

Papers of the Month – 2008

Each month, The Connecticut Health Disparities Project selects a “Paper of the Month” that reflects current areas of interest of people involved in Project activities. These papers are chosen for the “food for thought” they present for people involved in health disparities topics [and should not be construed as an endorsement of, or agreement with, the authors' arguments].

January 2008

February 2008

March 2008

April 2008

May 2008

June 2008

July 2008

August 2008

September 2008

October 2008