

Prasad Srinivasan: Receives Ellis Island Medal of Honor

On Saturday, May 8, Prasad Srinivasan, M.D. (Dr.S) was awarded the Ellis Island Medal of Honor. The United States Senate and the House of Representatives have passed resolutions officially recognizing the Ellis Island Medal of Honor. The honor provides unprecedented recognition and the name will be chronicled forever in our nation's history.

Ellis Island Medal of Honor recognizes people who have made contributions both in the United States and in the country of their origin.

“One feels honored to be in that group of eminent people and also humbled by the award.

Each recognition and every single award energizes me to make more and more contributions to the society we live in and to the society that we left behind many years ago” said Prasad Srinivasan on receiving this prestigious award.

CIRC recognizes Prasad Srinivasan

On April 20, 2010, Connecticut Immigrant and Refugee Coalition (CIRC) recognized and honored Prasad Srinivasan, M.D. (Dr.S) on his lasting impact of medical profession and community. CIRC hosted 13th Annual Immigrant Day at the State Capitol and was attended by Secretary of the State Susan Bysiewicz, Robert Fishman President of CIRC, Dr.Leslie Desmangles Key Note Speaker and other several state dignitaries.
