

Addendum 1

Question 1: Are Regional Education Service Centers (RESC's) eligible to submit for this grant?

Response: Per Section III. of the RFP document, Connecticut public and independent higher education institutions are eligible and are encouraged to include strategic partners as part of their proposals. RESC's are eligible to partner with institutions of higher education; however, the higher education institution must be the lead organization submitting the proposal.

Question 2: Can an institution of higher education submit more than one proposal?

Response: Yes, more than one submission from a specific higher education institution is acceptable.
