46 Connecticut State Troopers Honored

Connecticut State Troopers who served in the military during Operation Iraqi Freedom, will be honored at a special dinner that is being held at the Aqua Turf Club in Southington, Ct. on August 26, 2004 at 6 p.m.

The State Police Department, the Connecticut State Police Union, and the Connecticut State Police Alumni Association are sponsoring this dinner. The department is sponsoring this dinner to show our appreciation to all of our troopers who have put their lives on the line and served our country.

The troopers being honored are all members of the National Guard or Reserve Units and were called to serve on active duty with their military units.

The State Police are proud of all of the men and women who have served and are continuing to serve our country during this operation. This dinner is a very small way in which we can publicly show our appreciation for their sacrifices and to honor and thank each State Trooper who served.

Commissioner Leonard Boyle and the Command Staff of the Connecticut State Police will be in attendance to show their support for these brave men and women and to thank their families for their sacrifices.
