PRESS RELEASE

Troopers of the Troop H Community Policing Unit, AMR Ambulance and the Connecticut Children's Medical Center personnel, in conjunction with "Toys R US" department stores, which provided drop-off locations in West Hartford, Manchester, and Newington, all participated in the success of the Troop H 2004 toy drive.

For the past three years, the Troop H Community Policing Unit has collected over 100,000 toys, and raised in excess of 40,000 dollars in cash.

The toys and monetary donations will be presented to CEO Larry Gold, and the children of the Children's Hospital (CCMC) on 12/23/04 at 1000 hours.

Event Chairman Trooper Michael Pendelton and The Troop H Community Policing Unit, extends its sincere gratitude and appreciation to all who participated through their efforts and donations to this year's successful toy drive.

All media questions regarding the toy drive should be directed to:
