STATE POLICE MAKE

ARREST MADE IN

THREAT TO COURTS

12/05/05

On Friday 12/02/2005 at approximately 9:30 a.m. a bomb threat was received with a non-specific threat against a state judicial courthouse. Shortly thereafter additional threats were made against more courthouses.

In the interest of public safety all courthouse facilities were cleared. The State Police working with Local Police agencies and the Judicial Branch examined each facility utilizing specially trained State Police and local police K-9 teams.

The threats prompted an extensive criminal investigation by the Connecticut State Police Detectives. Investigators worked throughout the weekend and with the assistance of the FBI, State Police Detectives developed leads and information in this case.

Commissioner Leonard C. Boyle and Colonel Edward Lynch commended the State Police Central District Major Crime Squad and FBI for their quick and efficient work in relation to this extensive investigation.

Today 12/05/05 State Police Detectives submitted an arrest warrant affidavit to Superior Court GA#11 in Danielson for the arrest of an accused in this case. The court issued a signed arrest warrant for the accused that was taken into custody by State Police Detectives at his home without incident.
