ESCAPE FROM CUSTODY-- ARREST MADE

On 11/28/05 Marc Mompont (DOB: 04/21/73) escaped from the Office of Parole in Bridgeport while handcuffed by running out the front door and into a waiting vehicle. The vehicle was pulled over a short time later, but Mompont was no longer in the vehicle. The vehicle operator, Felicia Burl (DOB: 02/04/82), was arrested and charged with Hindering Prosecution and Conspiracy to Commit Escape. Mompont remained at large.

On 12/05/05 information was developed by the US Marshals that Marc Mompont was hiding at a condominium complex located at 15 Novak Street in Norwalk, CT. Members of the US Marshals, the Norwalk Police Department Special Services Division, the Norwalk Police Department Patrol Division, the Stratford Police Department and the State Police Western District Major Crime Squad Detectives responded to the complex and located Mompont hiding in the attic area of the unit. Mompont had climbed into the attic as officers knocked on the door, and then broke a light bulb above his head to conceal his location. Mompont was removed from the attic without further incident when located by officers.

Felicia Burl, denied that Mompont was in the condominium unit when questioned by police. Once Mompont was located, Burl was charged with Hindering Prosecution in the Third Degree.

Mompont and Burl were both transported to Troop G in Bridgeport where Mompont was served with an arrest warrant charging him with Escape From Custody. He is being held on a $200,000 bond pending arraignment at Bridgeport Superior Court on 12/06/05. Burl is held on a $25,000 bond pending her arraignment at Norwalk Superior Court on 12/06/05.

No additional arrests are pending in this investigation.
