Connecticut State Police Troop D – Danielson

NEWS RELEASE

On 01/10/2006 at approximately 3:00p.m. Troopers from the Danielson barracks responded to a reported disturbance at a residence located on Butts Bridge Road in Canterbury. It was reported that an adult female was striking a parked vehicle with an axe. The Troopers responded to the location and as they arrived, the suspect left the scene in a pickup truck. The troopers attempted to stop the suspects vehicle as it traveled south on Butts Bridge Road approaching the intersection of Rte 12. In an attempt to avoid capture, the suspect vehicle collided with State Police cruisers, causing damage to three cruisers and subsequently rolling over and crashing into a fence. One trooper sustained minor injuries and the suspect was also transported to day Kimball Hospital and treated for minor injuries. The investigation is ongoing and criminal and motor vehicle charges are pending.
