Suffolk County Police Cold Case Detectives Seek Assistance In Identifying Body

Suffolk County Police Homicide Squad Cold Case detectives are asking for the public's help identifying the body of a man that was found on a beach on Plum Island in New York on January 14, 2010.

The man is described as a black male, 5 feet, 10 inches tall, between 160 and 190 pounds, between 50 and 70 years old. He was wearing a light green three-button shirt with dark green horizontal stripes, green cargo pants with buttons inscribed with "God Body Collection," brown loafers in size 10, blue plaid boxer shorts and a belt with a buckle bearing the inscription "Stacy Adams."

During a post-mortem examination, it was discovered that the man had a well-healed head injury and indications of prior neurosurgery. He was also taking the medications Dilantin and Phenobarbital prior to his death.

Detectives are looking into the possibility that the man may be from Connecticut, Rhode Island or Massachusetts.

Anyone with information about the identity of this man is asked to call the Homicide Squad at 631-852-6392 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-220-TIPS.
